SO MUCH JAZZ: D.C. plays host to International Jazz Day this year. You're probably not invited to the all-star concert held at the White House, but you can still catch Herbie Hancock at the opening ceremony in Dupont Circle—which will play host to concerts all day. Plus a wealth of free performances, jams, tours, lectures, and other events are taking place all around the city all day. 10 a.m.-9 p.m. Free
